As authorized by N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5.3 and in conformance with the provisions of P.E.R.C. ##### Step 1

The grievance shall first be taken to the officer's immediate supervisor, i.e., the Principal Probation Officer II if a Principal Probation Officer II is in fact the immediate supervisor. The Principal Probation Officer II shall make an effort to resolve the problem within 3 working days. At this level, a complaint or grievance need not be in writing. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent. If a Principal Probation Officer II is not the immediate supervisor, then the grievant shall initiate the grievance procedure at Step 2.

Step 2

If not resolved at the Principal Probation Officer II level, the grievance shall be put in writing, signed by the aggrieved officer and submitted to the Principal Probation Officer I, who shall render a decision within five (5) working days. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent.

Step 3

If not resolved at the supervisory level the grievance shall be submitted to the Chief Probation Officer, who shall acknowledge its receipt within three (3) working days and shall render a decision within five (5) working days thereafter. In the case of absence of the Chief Probation Officer, the grievance may be handled by a designated assistant or it may proceed to the next step with the approval of both parties. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent.

Step 4

If the aggrieved officer is not satisfied with the decision of the Chief Probation Officer he/she may request that the grievance be heard by an impartial mediator, who may be chosen in accordance with the provisions of the New Jersey State Board of Mediation's "Special Procedures," if the Board is willing to hear the grievance and make recommendations. With the agreement of both parties, this step may be bypassed and the grievance be submitted directly to Step 5.

It is understood that if there is a cost associated with the service that the cost of said mediation service should be split between the parties.

Step 5

In the event Step 4 is bypassed or if either party is not satisfied with the recommendations of the Board of Mediation, he/she may choose to utilize one of the following two options for a final determination of the grievance:

- (a) The officer may appeal to the Civil Service Commission under the laws and rules governing the operation of that agency provided that the Commission agrees to hear the case;
- (b) He may appeal to the Superior Court Judges, in which case the decision of the Judges shall be final and shall be rendered with reasonable promptness.

All grievances and complaints that are related to judicial policy and/or the authority of the Superior Court Judges, Chief Justice, Supreme Court, Administrative Director of the Courts or the Assignment Judge under Rule 1:34-4 and and any other applicable Statute or Court Rule shall be limited to Step 5(b). In using the grievance procedure established herewith, an employee is entitled at each step to be represented by an attorney of his own choosing, or by a bona fide member of the Association designated to represent him pursuant to this Agreement.

Notwithstanding any procedures for the resolution of disputes, controversies or grievances established by any other statute, grievance procedures established by agreement between the public employer and the representative organization shall be utilized by any dispute covered by the terms of such agreement.
